PC committee rooms opened up last week in Lindsay

Bill Scott opened the Progressive Conservative committee rooms in the old A & P building on William Street South in Lindsay on Tuesday, April 3rd. He then went on to file his nomination papers with returning officer, John Bovie.

9.2% rise in education levies for 1979

HALIBURTON - At the March meeting of the Haliburton County Board of Education, figures were released on education levies to county municipalities, and they have risen 9.2 percent over last year.

This year, the municipal levies will account for $2,648,024 of the total board budget of more than $4,800,000. Provincial grants will contribute another $1,858,129, with the remaining coming from other revenues, including rental of board property and tuition paid by other boards for students who attend Haliburton County schools.

Although this year's budget is up only 3.8 percent over the $4,628,531 budget of 1978, provincial grants again this year have been reduced. In 1978 provincial government grants totalled $1,904,317 to the Haliburton County Board. However, this year, despite projected increases in board expenditures, provincial grant support has fallen by 2.4 percent or $46,188. This accounts for the 9.2 percent hike in 1979.

The 1.8 percent increase in overall assessment across the county, however will reduce to 7.5 percent the actual levy increase to taxpayers according to the board's business administrator, Jim Leworthy.

The levy per municipality will be the following: Anson Hindon and Minden $523,303, up 7.1 percent; Cardiff $141,387, up 10.4 percent; Dysart et al, $815,208, up 10.3 percent; Glamorgan, $171,307, up 10.5 percent; Lutterworth, $203,068, up 11.7 percent; Monmouth, $98,083, up 8.8 percent; Sherbourne, McClintock and Livingstone, $237,467, up 9.3 percent; Snowden, $91,167, 9.5 percent higher; Stanhope, $322,083, up 7.8 percent and Improvement District of Bicroft, $44,941, 7.1 percent higher.

At the opening of the committee rooms, Bill reminisced with party supporters about his 13 years in the House of Commons representing the people of Victoria-Haliburton. Mr. Scott stressed to supporters his concern that Canada, under the Trudeau government, has not been working. He explained the National Progressive Conservative slogan "Let's get Canada working again."

Bill also expressed concern regarding the Canadian economy. "We as a people are not reaching our full potential," he said. "The problems of unemployment alone involve not only a tremendous waste in manpower, but also produces far reaching social effects that I see daily in my efforts to serve the constituency in the riding", declared the veteran Member of Parliament. Mr. Scott indicated pleasure in having Mrs. Marie Alger directing his election committee rooms and in having Gordon Pepper serving as official agent. Mr. Scott reported that the phone number for the election committee rooms is 705-324-6173 and that further committee rooms are planned for Haliburton, Georgina, and the Brock area. He went on to point out that constituent problems will be handled as usual through his Ottawa office and the constituency office at 42 Victoria Avenue North, Lindsay. Lloyd Graham is constituency secretary and can be reached at 324-1664.

It was evident that Bill enjoys campaigning and the increased opportunity to meet face to face with his many acquaintances in the riding, and the making of new friends in Georgina Township, newly added to the riding of Victoria-Haliburton.

Mr. Scott stressed that in his opinion, the May 22nd election is one of the most crucial in Canadian history. "Canada can not afford one more day of the Trudeau government", he declared.

John Eakins supports Ministry decision to keep air-helicopter ambulance service

John Eakins, M.P.P. for Victoria Haliburton, said today that he fully supports the Ministry of Health's decision to continue the helicopter ambulance service.

Mr. Eakins said that on a number of occasions he had watched the helicopter land and take off with patients from Ross Memorial Hospital in Lindsay. He said that it has proven its value with the transport of critically-ill patients in an area roughly 100 miles from Toronto.

To date, the helicopter ambulance service has transported 222 critically-ill people to hospitals in Toronto. Approximately 35 percent of these patients were premature newborn babies. And in the recent bus tragedy near Barrie, the helicopter ambulance proved a vital link between the hospital there and in Toronto.

Mr. Eakins said that the helicopter ambulance service is also beneficial to small communities where hospitals cannot support the medical specialties or the equipment required for all critically-ill patients. It allows physicians without having to leave their communities, to transport patients safely, with the help of critical-care personnel and specialized equipment, at greater speed than by standard land ambulance.

John Eakins said that he had received a number of letters urging his support of this air ambulance, and the Minister's support of this service is much appreciated.

HALIBURTON - sometime between the period of February 23 and 25th, 1979, a storage shed owned by Bruce G. Cowen of R. No. 1 Haliburton was entered by breaking a

Hydro offers 8 per cent now up to CUPE members

Ontario Hydro has offered a contract settlement valued at 8 per cent to renew its collective agreement with the Ontario Hydro Employees' Union, CUPE Local 1000.

At a meeting April 1, the union's executive board recommended that members reject the settlement. The union's 15,000 members across Ontario will now vote on the offer. If rejected, Hydro and the employees' union will be in a legal strike/lockout position late in April.

The wage offer includes an increase of 8 per cent for all hourly-rated employees. This would bring, for example, the electrician/lineman hourly rate up to $10.67, effective March 29, 1979.

The increase for weekly-salaried employees would vary from 6 to 8 per cent. Other contract improvements include payment of dental fees and increases in shift payments and on-call payments.

The proposed contract would run from April 1, 1979 to March 31, 1980.

The union's last bargaining response called for an 11 per cent increase and further major improvements to employee benefits. Total value of the wage/benefits package sought by the union is about 16 per cent.

No cause for alarm says Hydro chairman

Evaluation of preliminary information received on the accident at Three Mile Island nuclear plant near Harrisburg, Pa. indicates no cause for concern about the safe operation of Ontario nuclear plants, Hydro Chairman Robert Taylor said today.

Substantial differences exist between the reactor design and control system of Ontario Hydro's CANDU stations and the American plant.

"One fundamental difference," Mr. Taylor said, "is the vacuum containment system in the Pickering and Bruce designs which would immediately draw in any leak of steam or radioactivity and prevent it from escaping to the outside environment."

"If a similar series of malfunctions did occur at a Hydro nuclear station, the public would be protected by our defense-in-depth safeguards," Mr. Taylor said.

Mr. Taylor said a complete review and analysis of the Three Mile Island accident will be made by Ontario Hydro as soon as more complete information is available.

Mel Robertson elected Deputy-Zone Commander of Zone-F4

SUNDERLAND - Legionaires and members of the Ladies Auxilliary of the Royal Canadian Legion Zone-F4, gathered in the Sunderland Legion Branch 141 on Sunday, April 1st, to attend the annual spring legion rally. A large delegation was on hand when Zone F4 Legion Commander Doug Worrall of Lindsay called the meeting to order with the opening Legion ritual.

Zone Chairman John Dayman of Lindsay took charge of the meeting at this point in the most capable manner. Minutes of the last rally and financial statement were presented by Zone F4 Secretary-Treasurer John Mathieson of Coboconk and approved.

Reports were heard from presidents of the following branches of the Legion in the Zone; Beaverton, Brechin, Bobcaygeon, Cannington, Coboconk, Fenelon Falls, Haliburton, Kinmount, Lindsay, Omemee, Sunderland and Woodville.

This made 100 percent turnout of branches and all the reports proved that the work of the Legion in this area is something which members can be justly proud.

The chairman then called on some of the visiting Legionaires to conduct nominations and election for Zone-Commander and Deputy Zone Commander. Zone F4 Commander Doug Worrall was acclaimed for another two-year term. The new Deputy Zone Commander will be Mel Robertson of Haliburton. Zone Commander Worrall thanked members for their show of confidence in him to carry on his duties in this capacity.

The new Deputy Commander thanked members for electing him to this position and assured them that he would serve Legion to the best of his abilities as they would wish him to.

Chairman Dayman expressed his appreciation and thanks to the assembly for attention afforded him during the transaction of business and the various reports. He announced that the Zone Fall Rally will be held in Woodville, date to be set by council.

Zone Commander Worrall thanked the host branch for being such perfect hosts for the rally which was attended by a large delegation from Branch 67 Lindsay Legion and its Ladies Auxilliary.

President Stan Vestby closed the rally with the singing of 'God Save the Queen'. A pleasant social hour was spent at the conclusion of the ceremony with the Ladies Auxilliary providing a very tasty buffet dinner much to the enjoyment of all present.

Glen Hodgson heads economic group for County Charge laid after collision

HALIBURTON - The Haliburton County Economic Development Commission is setting up a series of workshop meetings to obtain public input to guide them in their task of improving the economy of the county.

The chairman Glen Hodgson, reveals that a number of ideas have been discussed at their own meeting but these public meetings are needed to make sure the commission is attempting to accomplish what the general community wishes.

"Everyone agrees that our local economy needs to be further developed to help employment and so on, but there is a wide diversity of opinions when it comes to how, and what type of industries we should encourage. A cottager, for instance, has a completely different point of view than a year round resident," Mr. Hodgson said.

He went on to point out that meetings have been set up to begin at PineStone Inn in Haliburton, on Wednesday, April 11th at 7:30 p.m., and the following Wednesday, April 18th at the Leslie Frost Centre near Dorset. The third meeting in Wilberforce at the Lloyd Watson Memorial Centre has been scheduled for Friday, April 17th, to allow cottagers to attend who cannot be here on a weeknight. "At all meetings those attending are invited to participate by submitting a presentation on behalf of themselves or any interested group. Presentations regarding all aspects of our development, what they would like to see happen or not happen, where it should or should not take place, ideas on how to make it happen and the effect good or bad such development may have on parts of the community," said Mr. Hodgson.

"Everyone," he added, "who has participated in this way will receive a copy of the commission's summary, along with an invitation to participate in the final workshop which will draft a 'Plan of Action' for the commission. This final workshop will also include a number of political representatives who can hopefully provide some answers to pertinent questions.

The new Haliburton County Economic Development Commission is made up of Reeves, Murray Feary, Sinc Nesbitt and Malcolm

Service station destroyed by fire

HALIBURTON - Stan's Texaco Service Station on Highway 121, east of Haliburton, burnt to the ground last Monday afternoon. Cause of the fire has been blamed on a spark that ignited some gasoline.

The service station burned despite the efforts of Dysart et al volunteer firemen, who were on the scene half a mile east of the village within minutes of the alarm.

Destroyed in the fire was a 1966 Acadian owned by Gary Montgomery of Toronto, which was in the garage for repairs. A number of other vehicles were pushed or towed to safety.

The fire apparently started while repairs were being done to Montgomery's car. Bob Parker, who leased the garage from owner Stan Parish, had just disassembled the carburetor and was draining dirty gasoline from the tank into a bucket, when, according to witnesses, the whole floor just went up in flames.

Parker, who was under the car at the time, was unaware of the fire until shouts sent him scrambling to safety. The fire spread rapidly through the wood frame building, that had stood on this site for 31 years.

Mr. Parker estimated his loss on the building's contents at about $15,000. The contents were only partly insured. Parker was unable to say on Monday whether the building would be replaced.

MacGillvary, along with Warden Jim Harrison from Haliburton County Council, Directors John Hogg, Jim McLean and Barbara Bolin from the Chamber of Commerce and Bill Valentine and Chester Schwandt, with chairman Glen Hodgson, all of whom were nominated to the commission by the original six delegates. The Chamber of Commerce staff is delegated with the responsibility of carrying out the commitments of the commission and manager Bob Stinson sees it as a real challenge. "Competition for new industry has never been tougher throughout the province than it is right now, and we are under-staffed and under-financed compared to other areas that are in the fight, but we have something none of them have, Haliburton County," Stinson declared, adding, "I really feel we are on the verge of seeing some great things happen here. We are extremely underdeveloped for a community this close to the metropolitan area and that is bound to change. I just hope we have the wisdom to deal with it in a way that will benefit the majority and retain for all of us the environment we enjoy."

DORSET - Despite the terrible conditions on Friday when high winds and snow hit Haliburton County, the Minden Detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police report little activity for the period of April 2nd to 8th. During this period the staff investigated only one motor vehicle collision and 69 general occurrences.

There were two break-ins reported, two cottages found insecure, one person was charged with a liquor violation and one person was charged with impaired driving.

In the only motor vehicle collision, which happened on County Road No. 8 near Dorset, the driver of a 1968 car has been charged with no licence on the car and no insurance.

Robert B. Mace 16, of Dorset, was westbound when he lost control of his car on a curve and rolled over into a pond in the north ditch. Mace was taken to Huntsville hospital suffering from minor injuries. Damage to the vehicle has been set at $500 by Minden O.P.P. Constable Jim Solway.

'FitTest' is coming to Haliburton County soonAUTO-SPIROMETER: Measures lung size, elasticity and also indicates breathing efficiency.

Everyday, more and more people are taking advantage of the active life-style. They're feeling better, looking better and getting a lot more out of life. This growing desire for the 'high' of well-being has created a demand to know 'How and where do I start'. To answer these concerns the Ministry of Culture and Recreation, through Fitness Ontario has developed 'FitTest', 'a fitness assessment and counselling service.'

The assessment features of FitTest include the determination of: ideal body weight based on percentage body fat; lung capacity and airway elasticity; cardio-respirator (heart-lung) efficiency; muscular strength and endurance and flexibility.

With the information from these tests, the counsellor then devises a basic fitness program best suited to meet your needs and interests.

The key part of FitTest is the opportunity for personalized consultation. Working together on a one to one basis, the counsellor can answer your questions as well as motivate you to start the basic program recommended.

HALIBURTON COUNTY BOARD OF EDUCATION

FINANCIAL STATEMENT DECEMBER 31, 1978

TO THE HALIBURTON COUNTY BOARD OF EDUCATION

We have examined the Balance Sheet of the Haliburton County Board of education as at December 31, 1978, the Revenue Fund Statement of Operations and the Capital Fund Statement of Operations for the year then ended. Our examination included a general review of the accounting procedures and such tests of accounting records and other supporting evidence as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion these Financial Statements present fairly the financial position of the board as at December 31, 1978 and the results of its operations for the year then ended, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted for Ontario school boards applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

The Carling O'Keefe Colt 45 Open Ontario Championships

HAMILTON - Once again this year the 1000 Lakes Bowlers Association will be sending three teams to the Carling O'Keefe Colt 45 Open Ontario Championships, which get underway in Hamilton this Easter weekend.

Over 450 bowlers from 24 zone associations across the province will take to the lanes in men's, ladies and mixed teams plus singles competition, to see who will be representing this province at the World Championships to be held at the end of May in Victoria, British Columbia.

The mixed teams open the Colt 45 this year on Thursday afternoon. The format has been completely changed and instead of each of the 24 associations competing against the other 23 teams, the teams have been broken down into four divisions or groups. There are six teams in each group and they will compete against each other twice on a home and away format. This will be the year of the coach. The visiting team will put down his line-up first and hand it to the home team. It is then up to the home team coach to figure out where to place his bowlers as each winning player will pick up one point and the team with the highest total will receive an additional two points. After the teams have played each other twice, the four teams with the most points in each division will meet in a match play, step-ladder final on Saturday, to determine the Provincial champion.

1000 Lakes Bowlers Association will meet the following teams this year in team play: mixed team, group 1 - Hamilton, York Simcoe, York West, Ottawa, 1000 Lakes and Agincourt. Men's team, group 3 - Tri Conty, Conestoga, York Simcoe, Georgian Bay, London and 1000 Lakes. Ladies team, group 3 - York Simcoe, Scarborough, Tri County, Georgian Bay, Great Pine Ridge and 1000 Lakes.

The schedule of events for the Colt 45 Open is as follows: Thursday, April 12th, the mixed teams will bowl five games starting at 12 noon. At 6:30 p.m. that night teams will bowl five games, and at 2 p.m. the mixed teams will bowl their final five game block. At 7 p.m. the final block of the men's and ladies singles takes place and at 9 p.m. the men's and ladies teams bowl their final five game block, and at 2 p.m. the men's, ladies and

Eclectic furnishings allow self-expression

By BARBARA MARSHALL

Furniture is a long-term investment. We have to live with it a long time.

The first consideration in selecting furniture is style. Today's market has a lot to offer — from the traditional elegance of period reproductions, such as French or Italian Provincial to the casual warmth of country and provincial to the starkness and simplicity of modern styles using chrome, leather and glass.

Designing a traditional room in pure style is seldom done today. Interiors have become more eclectic in character — several different styles may be combined in a room. This allows greater individual expression and is more suited to rooms of today which often lack the distinction of an architectural background. Traditional pieces used with contemporary furniture can lend warmth and detail to an otherwise stark room.

Furniture style should suit your personality and satisfy your particular needs. Do you entertain a lot and need space? Or read in a favorite corner? Decide on the number of pieces you need by considering the function or use of your rooms.

Unless money is no object when you wish to re-furnish, purchase basic furniture pieces that may be used interchangeably in color and style. This will enable you to move them freely throughout your home without clashing with the new surroundings.

With the tendency to reduce the size of living areas, dual purpose furniture such as sofa-beds, ottomans, storage end tables and stacking units are both practical and functional, especially in apartment living where space is at a premium.

Ottomans can double as extra seating when necessary and are easily stored when not in use. A sofa-bed will accommodate full-time sleeping or extra guests.

Consider two loveseats instead of a three or four seater sofa. Loveseats are more flexible when arranging furniture in a room and they will adapt easily to new conditions when you move. Modular furniture pieces have flexibility and make the most of space.

Cost and visual appearance are important when purchasing furniture but other factors will influence your selections. Consideration should be

Ask Alma

Dear Alma:

My son, 8, positively salivates over every issue of National Geographic. The pictures natives of primitive cultures without clothes really turn him on. I'm beginning to worry about this a little. Should I cancel our subscription? — N.M.P.

Dear N.M.P.:

No. He probably gets more stimulation from calendars and magazines in the barber shop.

Curiosity about the human body is normal at any age. Why not take this opportunity to begin to teach him about the fascinating cultural differences between peoples? You can explain the nudity in terms of climate and history.

Don't feel embarrassed about bare bodies. Everybody has one.

Dear Alma:

Would it be proper to have a 50th anniversary in a church if you are not a church member at all? I am waiting for your answer, as the anniversary will be here soon. — Waiting in Wisconsin

Dear W.I.W.: Almost anyplace is proper for such a lovely occasion. Many churches rely on the money they earn by renting facilities to non-members. By all means, have your party in the church hall. And give my very best wishes to the lucky couple.

Suburbia

"I've found my parishioners' sins are much more interesting since I was transferred out here to the suburbs."

Today, the only way rent goes down is if you share it, which explains why so many people have roommates.

Like Marcia, a young copywriter who recently moved to Los Angeles from Ohio. She decided to share an apartment with a woman her age who also works in advertising.

"Janice and I have a lot in common, in addition to business," she says. "We both like sports and old movies. But when it comes to food, never the twain shall meet!"

"Janice is one of those people who can eat seven candy bars for lunch and remain a size seven. Well, I recently lost 20 pounds and I'm still uneasy when I'm surrounded by temptation."

So Marcia was distressed, after she moved into Janice's apartment and found the kitchen stocked with all kinds of sweets and junk foods.

"I thought, there goes my 20 pounds and what can I do? After all, it is Janice's apartment, even though I'm paying half the rent. Still, she and I get on so well, I decided to talk to her about my problem — and her eating habits!"

Janice sympathized and said she'd do everything she could to keep Marcia slim. "But," Marcia says, "she also said her own mother had never been able to get her to 'eat right' and that we'd have to find a way for me to deal with her temptations."

Which they did. "We each buy our own food, which means I bring in meat, fish, salad, etc., and Janice brings in brownies, potato chips and marshmallows!" Marcia says.

Thinking Slim

BY JEAN NIDETCH

"But we keep canisters in the kitchen marked Fattening and Non-Fattening. Janice stuffs her snacks in the former, and I keep mine in the latter. When she starts chomping on pretzels, I get out my vegetables or any of the marvelous Weight Watchers' recommended nibbles and we nibble away together."

"Also, I prepare my dinners ahead of time so when we both come in exhausted — and Janice has a pizza under in hand — I can stick a carrot in my mouth and just wait for my fish marinara or chicken to heat up."

It's working out fine, Marcia says. What's more, "Once or twice, my dinner has smelled so good to Janice, she's snatched a couple of forkfuls! And she can't believe it's 'diet food!'"

Dear Alma:

Don't let anyone tell you that marital problems end with divorce.

My ex-wife, who won custody of our daughter after a bitter battle, always puts her job before her family. (That's one of the reasons we were divorced.) True to her style, when our child is sick, Jean delivers her to my parents and goes off to work.

I think it's wrong for my mother and father to bail her out and I've told them so, but they still accommodate her. What else can I do? — Stanley

Dear Stanley:

Your marital problems haven't ended because you're still trying to get Jean to change. Give up already. Put your daughter's welfare first. She receives the TLC she needs from your folks and they obviously enjoy having the opportunity to give it.

Besides, if you'd won the custody battle, who would YOU call to help out with the sick child so YOU could go to work?

Samantha READS YOUR STARS

If you were born this week: Home is where you hang your hat. Moving doesn't phase you and you enjoy traveling. You do, however, want to maintain close family ties. Your sense of humor is marvelous and your mind is interested in every subject imaginable. You are an honest and forthright person.

ARIES (3-21/4-19): Relationships of various kinds are highlighted this week, Aries, including the romantic. Pay attention to hunches, and before week is out be quiet so that you can hear the soft voice of inspiration. Your days soar to an absolutely super finale as you celebrate your birthday.

TAURUS (4-20/5-20): Expect progress along several lines in the days ahead. All these green lights bring smiles, but they're also apt to leave you rather breathless, Taurus. So take time to relax and attend a special social function.

GEMINI (5-21/6-20): Cupid is in your game this week, but he could be acting more like a turkey than a lover. Be prepared for confusion from crossed signals and hang loose. Later, exasperating female should be handled firmly. Week's end shapes up to be a real teaser. So what else is new?

MOONCHILD (6-21/7-22): Although outside demands may be heavy, Moonbaby, a certain family matter should be taken care of first. Then, you'd be wise to keep idealistic romantic feelings in a realistic perspective. When your head's in the clouds, it's hard to see the banana peel on the ground!

LEO (7-23/8-22): Make important calls, especially those long-distance ones. Friendly persuasion gathers allies like bees to honey, Leo. Later, deal with an unexpected visitor. Week closes with tricks and treats from a mixed-up bunny.

VIRGO (8-23/9-22): As a welcome change from the last few weeks, an obstacle is gone and you'll find it much easier to obtain straight answers and concise information. Later, a romantic rendezvous and a puzzle to solve, Virgo.

LIBRA (9-23/10-23): Make sure your feet are solidly planted on terra firma in week ahead, Libby, or one who comes on very strong could completely bowl you over. Assert yourself, babe, and you could surprise everyone and roll a strike of your very own. Yes, even you! Grab your ball and get ready.

SCORPIO (10-24/11-22): New project receives the nod this week, Scorp. Do behind-the-scenes preliminaries during first days, then proceed at full steam. Venus sits at your shoulder and she won't let you forget to make time for loving.

SAGITTARIUS (11-23/12-21): Try to keep your balance in a rather tipsy week ahead, Sag. Decide what you really want and what you'd just sort of like to have, and move accordingly. Last days see you putting your best foot forward.

CAPRICORN (12-22/1-19): Let your green thumb work for you to nurture new growth of several sorts, Cappy. You have the seedlings, the food, and the proper tools. Do be careful that you don't overweed. Those 'volunteers' can be great, too!

AQUARIUS (1-20/2-19): News and messages are accented this week, Aquari. Where conflicting reports confuse you, your heart will point the way to truth. Later, you make a choice, confirm a date, and go boogie to the beat.

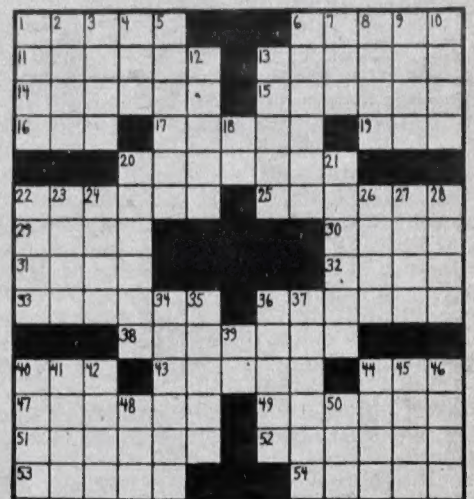

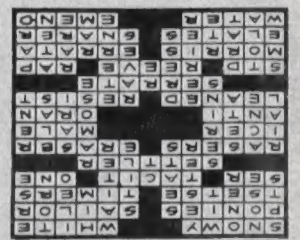

PISCES (2-20/3-20): Payday arrives this week, Pisces. I hope you've put in good hours so your check will be a sizable one! Your charm is especially tempting. Be discriminating and don't cast your (a)lure to just any old fish in the sea.
